Attendance Requirements

- A student is expected to attend all class contact hours for a face-to-face (F2F) or blended course and complete all activities for a blended or fully online course.

- Timetable clash - If a student is unable to attend all classes for a course due to timetable clashes, the student must complete the UNSW Arts & Social Sciences Permissible Timetable Clash Application form: https://www.arts.unsw.edu.au/ttclash/index.php

- Where practical, a student’s attendance will be recorded. The procedure for recording attendance will be set out on the course Learning Management System (Moodle).

- A student who attends less than 80% of the classes/activities and has not submitted appropriate supporting documentation to the Course Authority to explain their absence may be awarded a final grade of UF (Unsatisfactory Fail).

- A student who has submitted the appropriate documentation but attends less than 66% of the classes/activities will be asked by the Course Authority to apply to discontinue the course without failure rather than be awarded a final grade of UF. The final decision as to whether a student can be withdrawn without failure is made by Student Administration and Records.

- A student who arrives more than 15 minutes late may be penalised for non-attendance. If such a penalty is imposed, the student must be informed verbally at the end of class and advised in writing within 24 hours.

- If a student experiences illness, misadventure or other occurrence that makes absence from a class/activity unavoidable, or expects to be absent from a forthcoming class/activity, they should seek permission from the Course Authority, and where applicable, their request should be accompanied by an original or certified copy of a medical certificate or other form of appropriate evidence.

• A Course Authority may excuse a student from classes or activities for up to one month. However, they may assign additional and/or alternative tasks to ensure compliance. A Course Authority considering the granting of absence must be satisfied a student will still be able to meet the course’s learning outcomes and/or volume of learning. A student seeking approval to be absent for more than one month must apply in writing to the Dean and provide all original or certified supporting documentation.

• For more information about the SAM attendance protocols, see the SAM policies and guidelines webpage: https://sam.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/resources/policies-guidelines/

Essential Information For SAM Students

Summary of the Course:
Subject Area: Theatre and Performance Studies
This course can also be studied in the following specialisations: Media, Culture and Technology
This subject examines the places of technology in contemporary performance culture from MTV to performance art. It considers the rise of video literacy and the expanding field of digital culture in terms of the ways in which such technologies have shifted the parameters of performance and representation. It looks at a range of performance objects, activities, events and behaviours produced in the exchange between the body and new media. It looks at questions of the convergence of performance genres and the remediation of art works and theoretical concepts such as posthumanism and cybernetics. It critiques the notion that live performance forms are discrete and unmediated and therefore cut off from contemporary cultural change.

Student learning outcomes:
At the conclusion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Identify and discuss key developments in contemporary performance inspired by developments in technology
2. Evaluate the evolving relationship between technology and aesthetics
3. Assess the role of technology in performance history and in recent theoretical debates in the humanities
4. Demonstrate an advanced knowledge of different modes of performance and an appreciation of their cultural and historical specificity
5. Better undertake critical debate on contemporary cultural issues
6. Pursue individual guided research
7. Construct sustained critical argument in the form of reviews or essays
8. Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of selected theoretical perspectives and research methods

Teaching Strategies & Rationale

Rationale:
This course is designed to facilitate students' learning by establishing a multimodal teaching structure in which students discuss, research, present, participate and listen. The overall aim of the course is to enable students to maintain a deeper understanding of mediatised performance through facilitating connections they make between readings, case studies, presentations and screenings. Assessments reflect the expectations for excellence in research and inventiveness that this course seeks to establish. The topics the course covers reflect an ongoing commitment to teaching innovative, relevant and significant materials for the discipline of theatre/performance studies.

Teaching Strategies:
This course is structured as a combination of lecture, workshop and student-led learning processes. Weeks 1-9 are structured in a lecture / workshop / discussion format. Weeks 10-12 are structured in a student-led learning research and presentation approach, through which students are expected to integrate, apply and extend course materials with and for their peers. Students are encouraged to actively participate in the thinking-through of key theoretical and pedagogical questions specific to this course, and to proactively deepen the terms of the course through self-led research.

SEMINAR FORMAT: The three-hour seminar will be loosely structured as: first + second hour: lecture + visual screenings; third hour: student discussion, readings (although this may change from week to week). The aim of this class format is to integrate a number of student learning modalities. The lecture information provides a platform for students to then engage in student-led learning processes through the allocation of focus questions and / or set discussion tasks. Students are able to reflectively process other students' contributions in relation to their own, and to self-determine a critical and analytic research practice.

Assessment Detail

1. Debate (or report on debate) IN CLASS Week 3, 16 March. Report due 23 March 20%
This debate will test your understanding of the key theoretical arguments which are the extent to which technologies impact on every aspect of performance even challenging our conception of the 'live'. The debate takes Philip Auslander's arguments as a point of departure. Students can either participate in the debate as debaters, or adjudicators and chairs. Chairs and adjudicators will write and submit a report on the debate analysing how well the debaters dealt with the key arguments. All reports should be 1,000 words maximum.

You will be assessed on:
   a) evidence of close reading of the terms of the debate and a clear understanding of these terms and their context
   b) your ability to offer a considered response to the topic
   c) appropriate selection of key points from the reading
   d) presentation style (use of rhetorics of persuasion, tone of voice etc. or written style)
   e) organisation (of material)

All reports and speaker's notes will be submitted via Moodle, due the week following the debate.

Assessment Items to Learning Outcomes
Identify and discuss key developments in contemporary performance inspired by developments in technology
Better undertake critical debate on contemporary cultural issues
Evaluate the evolving relationship between technology and aesthetics
Assess the role of technology in performance history and in recent theoretical debates in the humanities
Demonstrate an advanced knowledge of different modes of performance and an appreciation of their cultural and historical specificity
Pursue individual guided research
Construct sustained critical argument in the form of reviews or essays

2. iCinema case study report DUE ON MOODLE Week 5, 6 April, 10am, 1250w 20%
Beginning with a close reading of the iCinema website, write a detailed five page (1250 words) study of two of the iCinema projects in terms of performance and performativity. You may wish to focus on some of the following:
- iCinema collaborations with Not Yet It’s Difficult Eavesdrop, Wooster Group There Is Still Time… Brother
- T Visionarium and the 'AVIE' immersive environment.
- new developments in mediated perception and narratives and their effects on aesthetics
- immersion and interactivity

You will be assessed on the following:
   a) content – what you write
   b) research – what you have read to inform your writing
   c) structure – how you organise your argument
   d) style – the way you write

Assessment Items to Learning Outcomes
Evaluate the evolving relationship between technology and aesthetics
Assess the role of technology in performance history and in recent theoretical debates in the humanities
Better undertake critical debate on contemporary cultural issues
Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of selected theoretical perspectives and research methods

3. Group research project and presentation – your own case study 60%
   • Proposal DUE IN CLASS and ON MOODLE Week 10, 11 May
   • Presentations Week 12
   • Written reports DUE ON MOODLE Week 13, 3 June

In the last three weeks of the course you will focus on a self-directed research project (in groups of 4-6). Your main task for this exercise is to clearly explain a chosen work or works in terms of its combination of technology and performance. The project is in three parts, a proposal, a presentation in week 12 and your individual written reports on the project, due week 13 on moodle. It is expected that you will have been developing this project from the middle of the course.

Rationale: Students are required to extend and apply the terms of the course into their own research areas, and to work collaboratively for a public presentation. Students are invited to think and present creatively, and to respond to the work of their peers within critically supportive framework.

3.1 Group research project and presentation - Presentation proposal 10%
The project proposal is a one page summary of what you intend to do and how. It should include the key questions and materials that will be dealt with in the presentation, and some background information to the presentation topic that you have chosen, including a list of references. You should consider this proposal as the rationale for how you connect your ideas to your chosen case study, via the frameworks discussed in the course (see below on developing your case study). You should upload a summary of this proposal to Moodle, and also use this as an opportunity to comment on other proposals online. You will be assessed on:
   a) succinctness and clarity of expression
   b) appropriateness of proposal choices to the course material as a whole
   c) presentation
Assessment Items to Learning Outcomes
Assess the role of technology in performance history and in recent theoretical debates in the humanities
Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of selected theoretical perspectives and research methods
Identify and discuss key developments in contemporary performance inspired by developments in technology
Evaluate the evolving relationship between technology and aesthetics
Demonstrate an advanced knowledge of different modes of performance and an appreciation of their cultural and historical specificity
Better undertake critical debate on contemporary cultural issues
Pursue individual guided research

3.2 Group research project and presentation – Presentation 20% Pecha Kucha format of 20-40 slides for 20 seconds per slide. You will be assessed on:
   a) your ability to critically and effectively approach your selected task
   b) appropriateness of choice in subject matter / content
   c) presentation mode: slide design, vocal clarity, use of sound, economy, performativity, etc.
   d) inventiveness and originality of thinking and presentation

Assessment Items to Learning Outcomes
Assess the role of technology in performance history and in recent theoretical debates in the humanities
Demonstrate an advanced knowledge of different modes of performance and an appreciation of their cultural and historical specificity
Pursue individual guided research
Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of selected theoretical perspectives and research methods
Identify and discuss key developments in contemporary performance inspired by developments in technology
Evaluate the evolving relationship between technology and aesthetics
Better undertake critical debate on contemporary cultural issues

3.3 Group research project and presentation – Individual Written report 30%
You will be assessed on the following:
   e) content – what you write
   f) research – what you have read to inform your writing
   g) structure – how you organise your argument
   h) style – the way you write

Assessment Items to Learning Outcomes
Better undertake critical debate on contemporary cultural issues
Pursue individual guided research
Identify and discuss key developments in contemporary performance inspired by developments in technology
Evaluate the evolving relationship between technology and aesthetics
Assess the role of technology in performance history and in recent theoretical debates in the humanities
Demonstrate an advanced knowledge of different modes of performance and an appreciation of their cultural and historical specificity
Demonstrate a thorough knowledge of selected theoretical perspectives and research methods

In order to pass this course, you must make a serious attempt at ALL assessment tasks. This is a SAM requirement.

Submission of Assessment Tasks

Students are expected to put their names and student numbers on every page of their assignments. If you encounter a problem when attempting to submit your assignment through Turnitin, please telephone External Support on 9385 3331 or email them on externalteltsupport@unsw.edu.au. Support hours are 8:00am – 10:00pm on weekdays and 9:00am – 5:00pm on weekends (365 days a year). If you are unable to submit your assignment due to a fault with Turnitin you may apply for an extension, but you must retain your ticket number from External Support (along with any other relevant documents) to include as evidence to support your extension application. If you email External Support you will automatically receive a ticket number, but if you telephone you will need to specifically ask for one. Turnitin also provides updates on their system status on Twitter.

Generally in SAM there will no longer be any hard-copy submission; assessments must be submitted electronically via either Turnitin or a Moodle assignment. In instances where this is not possible it will be stated on your course’s moodle site with alternative submission details.
Late Submission

PLEASE NOTE THAT THESE RULES APPLY FOR ALL COURSES IN SAM.

If your assignment is submitted after the due date, a penalty of 3% per day (including Saturday, Sunday and public holidays) will be imposed for up to 2 weeks. For example, if you are given a mark of 72 out of 100 for an essay, and your essay were handed in two days late, it would attract a penalty of 6% and the mark would be reduced to 66%. If the same essay were handed in seven days late (i.e. a penalty of 21%) it would receive a mark of 51%. If your assignment is not submitted within 2 weeks of its due date, it will receive a mark of 0. For more information on submission of late work, consult the SAM assessment protocols at https://sam.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/resources/policies-guidelines/

Extension Procedure

• A student seeking an extension should submit a SAM extension application form (found in Forms on SAM website) to the Course Authority before the due date.
• The Course Authority should respond to the request within two working days of the request.
• The Course Authority can only approve an extension of up to five days. A student requesting an extension of more than five days should complete an application for Special Consideration.
• If a student is granted an extension, failure to comply will result in a penalty. The penalty will be invoked one minute past the approved extension time.
• This procedure does not apply to assessment tasks that take place during regular class hours or any task specifically identified by the Course Authority as not subject to extension requests.
• A student who misses an assessed activity held within class contact hours should apply for Special Consideration via myUNSW.
• For more information, see the SAM extension protocols on the SAM policies and guidelines webpage: https://sam.arts.unsw.edu.au/students/resources/policies-guidelines/

Special Consideration

In the case of more serious or ongoing illness or misadventure, you will need to apply for Special Consideration. For information on Special Consideration please go to this URL: https://student.unsw.edu.au/special-consideration

Students who are prevented from attending a substantial amount of the course may be advised to apply to withdraw without penalty. This will only be approved in the most extreme and properly documented cases.

Academic honesty and plagiarism

Plagiarism is using the words or ideas of others and presenting them as your own. It can take many forms, from deliberate cheating to accidentally copying from a source without acknowledgement. UNSW groups plagiarism into the following categories:

• Copying: using the same or very similar words to the original text or idea without acknowledging the source or using quotation marks. This also applies to images, art and design projects, as well as presentations where someone presents another’s ideas or words without credit.
• Inappropriate paraphrasing: changing a few words and phrases while mostly retaining the original structure and information without acknowledgement. This also applies in presentations where someone paraphrases another’s ideas or words without credit. It also applies to piecing together quotes and paraphrases into a new whole, without referencing and a student’s own analysis to bring the material together.

• Collusion: working with others but passing off the work as a person’s individual work. Collusion also includes providing your work to another student before the due date, or for the purpose of them plagiarising at any time, paying another person to perform an academic task, stealing or acquiring another person’s academic work and copying it, offering to complete another person’s work or seeking payment for completing academic work.

• Inappropriate citation: Citing sources which have not been read, without acknowledging the "secondary" source from which knowledge of them has been obtained.

• Duplication ("self-plagiarism"): submitting your own work, in whole or in part, where it has previously been prepared or submitted for another assessment or course at UNSW or another university.

It is not permissible to buy essay/writing services from third parties as the use of such services constitutes plagiarism because it involves using the words or ideas of others and passing them off as your own. Further, it is not permissible to sell copies of lecture or tutorial notes as you do not own the rights to this intellectual property.

If you breach the Student Code with respect to academic integrity the University may take disciplinary action under the Student Misconduct Procedure (see above).

The Learning Centre also provides substantial educational written materials, workshops, and tutorials to aid students, for example:

• Correct referencing practices;
• Paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing and time management
• Appropriate use of and attribution for a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre. Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting and proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.
Course schedule

WEEK 1 Wednesday 2 March: Introduction to course and to key concepts in mediatised performance (ES)

Administration: Course particulars, group projects and presentations.

Discussion about contemporary artists, performers and theatre-makers working in Multimedia Performance.

Required readings:

Preparatory Task:
Choose any multimedia performance artist or company mentioned in the above readings. Find a video clip or photograph of one of their works, and come prepared to share and discuss.

WEEK 2 Wednesday 9 March: Liveness and Mediatised Theatre (ES)

- early media/art experiments
- a genealogy: happenings, John Cage and time-based art
- Fluxus and performance art
- theories of multimedia

Case studies:
Laurie Anderson Home of the Brave
Charlotte Moorman TV Bra and others...
The Wooster Group Route 1 & 9, House/Lights
Robert Wilson Einstein on the Beach

Required readings:

Suggested readings:

Preparatory Tasks:
See Moodle.

WEEK 3 Wednesday 16 March: Dance + Virtual = ? (ES)

- the stage as screen and vice versa
- Dumb Type S/N
- Merce Cunningham Biped with Paul Kaiser
The first part of the class continues the previous week’s analysis of live V mediated in terms of dance and virtuality. The second part will be a debate.

Debate: Two teams of three presenters will debate the following proposition: ‘Dance + Virtual = Virtual.’ In addition to the debaters, there will be a chair and adjudicators. Each speaker has a total of 5 minutes, 4 mins plus 1 min for rebuttal. All participants are to write and submit a report on the debate topic due next week. Speakers can use their notes. All reports are assessed and carry a weighting of 20%.

Required readings:

Suggested readings:

Preparatory Tasks:
See Moodle.

WEEK 4 Wednesday 23 March: Immersion + Interactivity, Video + Performance Part 1, iCinema excursion (ES)

This week's class is an excursion to the iCinema Centre for Interactive Cinema Research, UNSW, Sydney:

iCinema Scientia Facility
Kensington Lower Ground Floor, The John Niland Scientia Building G19
Map: http://www.icinema.unsw.edu.au/ic_contact.html

ALL students should post a response to their visit on Moodle immediately after the excursion. NB. This is preparation for Assessment task 2, a report on the iCinema project.

Group 1: meet 2.00 pm outside UNSW iCinema. 45 min workshop, remaining time for Moodle entries
Group 2: meet 2.45 pm outside iCinema. 45 min workshop, remaining time for Moodle entries

Moodle entry to be posted by Week 8, 1 May, 10am: Please add words / sensations / thoughts / impressions: can you make connections between your experience there and Auslander’s theory of liveness?

Case studies
iCinema collaborations with Not Yet It’s Difficult Eavesdrop, Wooster Group There Is Still Time… Brother

Course evaluation and development

At all times during the semester, I welcome your feedback on what content is exciting, confusing, what is or isn’t working for you in the course, including questions you have. You can bring these comments and questions to class discussion, or contact me individually via email or make an appointment to see me during office hours.

At the end of the session, you will be asked to complete an evaluation via UNSW’s CATEI portal, https://www.catei.unsw.edu.au/catei/system_login.login/, as part of the University’s ongoing commitment to continued i
